In East Peoria, a favorite son shows his favorite colors

Anyone who knows Dave Mingus, mayoral candidate for East Peoria, knows he is an avid runner. In fact, Dave has been running as long I've known him when we worked together at the Tazwood Mental Health Center years ago. Shortly after Dave unveiled his campaign materials at his mayoral announcement last winter, I dropped off a painting at Dave's office in the same color schemes.

Until election day, running is the name of Dave's game. That's why I titled the piece, Dave's Run.

You'll be sure to get "Moonstruck" at Ponte Vecchio

Now featured at Ponte Vecchio Italian Restaurant in Sheridan Village in central Peoria are two of my paintings, "Buon Giorno!", a takeoff on the Italian flag colors and the other, "Moonstruck", inspired by the comical movie about the lovable, dysfunctional Italian family. If you'd like me to brighten up your space with one of my paintings, email me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.

HeartART

April promises the hope of spring. My Faith, Hope and Love notecards also speak to the hope of days ahead. You'll find this image, along with my other notecard designs, posted in the HeartART section of my website. Please visit www.SuzetteBoulais.com.

Notecard design honors sister's memory

Last month, my friend Mary Ellen Ghidina called me with a special request. She wanted me to design a notecard that honored the memory of her sister who had recently lost her battle with breast cancer. Mary Ellen wanted the key image to be a rose with the flower's aroma emanating from it.

As Mary Ellen explained, the image was to represent the divine holiness that dwells inside each of us and emanates from all of us. From the title of the card, Odour of Sanctity, it was clear that Mary Ellen wanted to create a reverent and spiritual feel.

I appreciated the honor to collaborate with Mary Ellen on this design. Let me know if you would like me to collaborate on a special notecard design for you, too.

Odour of Sanctity
