The official word is in: Home is where the ART is

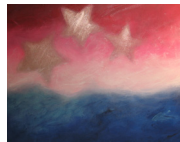

A few issues ago, I shared a story about two different sets of stars I painted for my sisters, Mimi and Celeste. Each had a different color theme they wanted me to work with for their homes - Mimi wanted stars with a red and khaki color scheme. Celeste wanted stars with a red, white and blue color scheme.

One of the greatest joys during my trip to Indianapolis over the holidays was to deliver my sisters' paintings. Here they are now (shown to the right) in their new homes.

As my sister Mimi commented, "Thank you. We LOVE the painting! It looks AWESOME! Thank you! It is really special. Not just that it is beautiful, but because it was created by you!"

Celeste commented, "What makes this painting extra special is that it has lots of fabulous sparkles and the sparkles generate a lot of light bouncing off the painting. It's like looking at the lights on a Christmas tree."

If you would like me to paint an original painting for your own home, email me at Suzette@ SuzetteBoulais.com.

"Art of Inspiration"

Beginning this month, I am adding a new element to my hand-painted notecards. On the inside of the cards I will include inspirational and biblical quotes upon request. Do you have a favorite quote? Let me know what it is and I'll create you your own personal set of cards. Notecards cost $12 per set of 6.

To place an order, email me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.

"Follow Your Art" sweatshirts will keep you warm

Picture This Gallery and Framing in Peoria Heights, IL is now carrying my Follow Your Art design on sweatshirts and long sleeved tees in addition to a colorful array of short sleeved tees.

All proceeds from the purchase of these shirts will benefit ArtsPartners of Central Illinois, Inc.

Stop by Picture This Gallery today and buy a nice, warm winter sweatshirt for that special artist in your life!
