Renewed Facebook Friendship Leads to Card Order

What a pleasant surprise it was to hear from an old high school friend on Facebook a few weeks ago. After we both played catch up and after he explored my website, high school pal Mark Benson purchased a dozen notecards of this design to the left. As he explains, "I so seldom write letters or send cards, so when I do it's for close people I want to connect with. Your "Thinking of you" cards were so appreciated by the people I sent them to. That opens up a story in itself when they ask me where I got them."

This month my "Thinking of you" cards are only $1.75 per card. Place your order now at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.

Read the true story behind "A Father's Prayer"

Several enewsletters ago I shared a prayer my brother Marc wrote for his daughter Danielle titled, "A Father's Prayer." Marc has since written a true short story about the events that led him to write his inspirational prayer. You can read his story, "Deep Waters" on my website at www.SuzetteBoulais.com.

SONGS OF DAVID

DAVID BROOKS / COMPOSER

It has been an honor to contribute several possible CD and web concept designs for my friend David Brooks, an accomplished pianist and composer who is in the process of launching a new website. Look for more information in future enewsletters about David's delightful piano music and how to purchase his CDs.

Feel free to forward this enews to friends and colleagues!
