Aunt Sue's artroom produces painting of "Aunt Sue"

I spend hours in my artroom, listening to music and painting away. That's exactly what my 14-year-old niece Claire and her friend Cody did when they came for a visit from Indianapolis last month. Here are two paintings done by the girls. To the right is a painting Claire did for me titled, Aunt Sue. Aunt Sue now hangs in my office at work.

According to Thom it's tee time

With warmer days just around the corner, it's going to be short sleeve tee shirt weather soon. That's why Thom Krokstrom of Beck's Florist on Lake Street in Peoria called me a few weeks ago and reordered a new stock of my Peoria skyline tee shirts.

Thom reports that some of his best customers are realtors who use the shirts as welcoming gifts for folks who have just moved to Peoria.

But my tee shirts aren't just for out-of-towners. They're good for in-towners, too.

Show your Peoria pride by purchasing a Peoria tee shirt today. They're only $15.00!

A golf tournament will be held on May 30 - June 1 in memory of Peoria golf legend Ron Ghidina who passed away last year. I had the honor of being asked by Ron's wife, Mary Ellen, to design the tournament logo.
