It time to start planning your holiday greeting cards

Be a Blockhead!

BUILD THE BLOCK!

As a firm believer that arts and cultural activities are strong economic drivers in the Peoria area, I have lent my support to the Build The Block Campaign. I invite you to "Be a Blockhead!" by supporting and donating to the Riverfront Museum project, too, through www.BuildTheBlock.org.

Playing around with Peoria logos

Peoria, Illinois, will soon have a new logo, thanks to the efforts of Peoria ad firm, Converse Marketing. While an entirely new image may enhance the branding of our city, I enjoyed creating a stylized version of our present Indian head logo and sent it to PJStar.com during a callout for logo designs from local residents. To the left is another Peoria logo I've printed on t-shirts that are now on sale at Beck's Florist on Lake Street in Peoria.

If you are looking to update or stylize an existing logo, I'd welcome an opportunity to provide you with some updated images. Let me know if I can be of help. You can email me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.
