'Tis The Time For Summer's Green To Turn To Brown

This abstract piece, Believing on Gray Days, will be on display along with several other of my 30" x 40" paintings, Friday, October 19, Noon – 5 pm & Saturday, October 20, 9 – 2 pm, at Hoerr Nursery's "Artists in the Garden" inside the Garden House, a new 10,000 square foot retail facility located across from the Shoppes at Grand Prairie Mall.

Hoerr Nursery is holding a huge sale of colorful products and has asked local artists to join in the activities to add even more color and pizzazz to the two day sale. Stop on by!

"Falling Leaves"

Are you looking for some notecards with both a personal touch and distinctive look? Let me hand paint some Falling Leaves notecards for you that are a nice tie in to this season. Notecards cost $12 per set of 6.

To place an order, email me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.

One of my latest projects has been designing a logo for my friends, Steve and Wendy Miller, who are opening a tanning salon in Morton, Illinois. For me, the design challenge was to think simple and obvious. I've incorporated a bronze colored font for their new business, Touch of Bronze Tan, and used a stylized sun for the graphic image.

I would be happy to create or update a logo for your organization or business. Please contact me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.
