

It's time to send my hand-painted Valentines

If you're looking for some Valentines with a personal touch, consider my hand-painted red and pink hearts with a pearl glitter.

Or you might appreciate my single red heart with splashes of gold against a hot pink.

The Valentines are on special this month, only $1.75 per card. You can go to the notecard page of my website at www.SuzetteBoulais.com and order via Pay Pal for easy purchasing. (For you unconventional types, ask about my Bold and BrASSy Valentines...)

Happy Valentine's Day

Be Mine!

Nephew bitten by apple bug

My nephew Vincenté is a computer guru and a real fan of the Macintosh Apple computer. As a Christmas gift this year, I painted him this piece, "Bitten by the Golden Apple." If you would like a piece of original art incorporating your favorite logo, contact me at Suzette@SuzetteBoulais.com.

New works at Exhibit A Gallery

The next time you go shopping in Junction City in Peoria Heights, Illinois, plan to stop by Exhibit A Gallery where you'll see two of my larger paintings on display. The 36" x 48" pieces of abstract art, painted in rich gold, brown and red tones, will complement any contemporary setting or wall space.
